Walk on the Wild Side

From a turtle to a big cat Walk On The Wild Side is a favorite with Sacramento County Fair goers. Children and adults enter through a rain forest and the education starts there. Kids can play on a lily pad, slid through the water and enter the magical jungle of wild animals. During the adventure guests will learn about exotic animals and their native habitat. Walk On The Wild Side is a non-profit 501c3 organization dedicated to helping all species of wild animals who, for various reasons, find themselves without a place to live out their lives. The animal ambassadors at the Sacramento County Fair each have their own lesson to teach.

Alfred & Seymour

New to the Sacramento County Fair Alfred and Seymour are two grown men that dress alike, have never been in the Boy Scouts, can't play sports and can't sing. But they ARE one of the most hilarious comedy duos you'll ever see. They have a standard of excellence that meets the criteria of ANY audience, young or old. Alfred and Seymour are cousins. They have been seen on the "Tonight Show", "Friday Night Videos" on NBC, Nickelodeon's "Kenan and Kal", and "Hangin' With Mr Cooper". Do you remember the hit TV series, "Roundhouse" on Nickelodeon? Well, it was a bunch of years ago and the Boyz were really young, but they were on that show about a million times.
