

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th • Main Stage Tina Marie, Hypnotist

America's favorite Master Hypnotists will be performing daily at the Sacramento County Fair. Tina Marie excels in her ability to intuitively read a crowd. She creates outrageous fun that leaves positive lasting memories with her loyal fans. Tina Marie's ability to orchestrate a multitude of different comical scenarios simultaneously keeps audiences roaring for more! Imagine the volunteers believing they are world class ballet dancers. Through post-hypnotic suggestions, she commands the winner of a million dollar lottery to jump up out of their seat screaming "I won, I won" or an impression of Richard Simmons conducting a group exercise class. Her skits and antics are hilarious!

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th • Grounds Extreme Dogs

This extreme stunt dog show will have you in awe of what man's best friend can do! A team of lovable rescue dogs will soar through the air, catch Frisbees and dock dive. Let's see how high they can jump. The show will give you tips to help your own pooch live a healthy, happy life.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th • Behind Main Stage Walk on the Wild Side

From a turtle to a big cat Walk On The Wild Side is a favorite with Sacramento County Fair goers. Children and adults enter through a rain forest and the education starts there. Kids can play on a lily pad, slid through the water and enter the magical jungle of wild animals. During the adventure guests will learn about exotic animals and their native habitat. Walk On The Wild Side is a non-profit 501c3 organization dedicated to helping all species of wild animals who, for various reasons, find themselves without a place to live out their lives. The animal ambassadors at the Sacramento County Fair each have their own lesson to teach.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th All-Alaskan Racing Pigs

The Famous All-Alaskan Racing Pigs are a team of the fastest and funniest athletes to serve up entertainment anywhere! Flat-track racing and hurdling are their specialties, but a good gag is always on the menu. Sourdough Jack and Soapy Smith have been cooking up fun since their first races in Fairbanks, Alaska. Don't miss them at Sacramento County Fair!

May 21st-25th

Free with Admission!

Something Ridiculous Comedy Jugglers

Something Ridiculous is a high-energy juggling and acrobatic act performed by slapstick stuntmen Mark Wilder and VonJon. Juggling almost anything they can get their hands on, the comic duo climbs up free-standing ladder, onto a ten-foot-tall unicycle or atop each other's shoulders in a wildly entertaining, dynamic show.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th The Procrastinators

You will hear them coming, you'll stop and watch and then you'll look around to see where they will be performing next! Strolling around the grounds of the Sacramento County Fair these incredible "street musicians" play anything you can imagine. From pots and pans to five-gallon water bottles they turn the incredible sound into legitimate music while jumping, sliding, twisting and stomping their way through the Fairgrounds.

