

May 21st-25th
Camel Rides

You don't have to visit the Safaris to ride a camel! All you need to do is attend the Sacramento County Fair. One hump or two? These questions can be answered as you have the opportunity to ride a camel and learn about camel facts. Did you know camels can go for a week in 110 degree heat with NO water! Don't forget to come by and get your ride on the camel during the Fair!

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th
Western Railroad Express

All aboard! This 1850's style steam engine will pick you up at the "Train Stop" by Walk on the Wild Side and take you on a tour of the grounds. If you have walked all day take advantage of the scenic ride around the grounds and you relax while seeing all the sights and sounds of the Sacramento County Fair.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th • Building C
Chef Ray Duey

Can you make a lion out of a watermelon? Chef Duey can and much, more. Culinary artist, Chef Ray L. Duey, CEC, is nothing short of amazing when it comes to food sculpting. To call him an artist is an understatement at best. In addition to working his magic on centerpieces, he travels around the country, teaching the culinary art of fruit and vegetable carving, leaving spectators and culinary professionals alike spellbound. Chef Ray is known for taking any fruit or vegetable and turning the ordinary into something extraordinary.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th
Blacksmith

Take a step back in time at the Sacramento County Fair as we provide you the opportunity watch a real blacksmith work! It's hot, hot, hot! A blacksmith's "fire" reaches at least 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit so they can shape metal. Blacksmithing, also called smith, craftsman who fabricates objects out of iron by hot and cold forging on an anvil. Blacksmiths who specialized in the forging of shoes for horses were called farriers. The term blacksmith derives from iron, formerly called "black metal," and farrier from the Latin ferrum, "iron."eaches . Stop by and learn this and much, much more.

Free with Admission!

May 21st-25th
Gold Gulch Adventures

Did someone say Gold? There's Gold in those rivers! Maybe not rivers, but the Sacramento County Fair is offering Gold panning at this year's Fair. Stop by this hands-on educational experience that incorporates history, science and fun all in one. Learn about the California Gold Rush History and how to pan for gold. Gold panning, or simply panning, is a form of placer mining and traditional mining that extracts gold from a placer deposit using a pan.

Entertainment Galore at the Sacramento County Fair!